DEMORSE'S INVICORATING CORDIAL

TOR GENITAL DEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, INCONTINENCE, OR NOCTURNAL EMISSIONS, &c.—The astonishing success which has attended this invaluable medicine, for Loss of Muscular Energy, Physical Lassitude, and General Prostration, or any of the consequences of youthful indiscretion, or indulgence of the passion in riper years, renders it the most valuable preparation ever discovered. In fact, as a remedy for the above complaints, it stands unrivalled and alone. There is no other reliable remedy, or any that has authentically received the sanction of the In fact, as a remedy for the above complaints, it stands unrivalled and alone. There is no other reliable remedy, or any that has authentically received the sanction of the Medical Faculty. The WONDERFUL VIGETABLE PRODUCTION of which this medicine is composed has been tested, and its virtues proclaimed, by the highest names of the faculty of Loudon, Paris, and the chief cities of Europe, as well as by eminent Physicians in this country. It is the only infallible remedy for NERVOUS, HEAD, and MIND, COMPLAINTS—the mental physic so long sought for and never before found—the only agent that can administer to MIND DISEASES. It will remove all nervous affections.
DEPRESSION, EXCITEMENT, incapacity to study or busi ness, loss of MEMORY, CONFU-10N, thoughts of selfdestruction, fear of insanity, &c. It will restore the apper tite, renew the health of those who have destroyed it by Sensual Excesses or evil practices. It has been said by some that these disorders, emissions, &c., were incurable
This, however, is not the fact.

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has cured, and is constantly curing, these complaints—relieving the mental and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate sufferer, as is constantly curing, these complaints—relieving tal and bodily ineapacity of the unfortunate suffere following testimony of the names received will con-

the following testimony of the names received will conclusively show:

Dr. Woodward, of ——, Massachusetts Insane Hospital, writes of one of his patients being cured by using this Cordial thus: "It gives me pleasure to inform you had one of my patients, while in Boston, procured some of your Cordial. He tells me that he has not had a single emission since he commenced taking it, while before he had two or three a week. When he applied to me," says Dr. W., "I thought it hardly possible for him ever to regain his full strength. I prescribed the usual medicine used in those cases in the hospital, but they had no effect. In the mean time he purchased some of your Cordial, which has effected a cure I am sure no other medicine would. I shill ever recommend it, whenever an opportunity occurs."

The nature of the maladies relieved by this Cordial are generally such as to leave the publication of certificates of cures out of the question. The proprietor could produce a host of the most conclusive testimony to show that the great reputation it enjoys was not accidentally obtained, but is firmly based upon its positive and apparently miraculous host of the most conclusive testimony to show that the great reputation it enjoys was not accidentally obtained, but is firmly based upon its positive and apparently miraculous virtues. In all directions are to be found the happy parents of healthy offsprings, who would not have been so but for this extraordinary preparation. And it is equally potent for many diseases for which it is recommended. THE MEDICAL JOURNALS for many diseases for which it is recommended.

THE MEDICAL JOURNALS
have not, in a single instance that has been authenticated, given their sanction to any other preparation for the above complaints. It has, in many violent and desperate cases, effected radical cures, after patients had been abandoned, and their condition pronounced hopeless by medical practitioners of high professional character.

THE COMMON EXPRESSION of those who have used this Extract is: "I had heard your Cordial highly spoken of, but was one of the incredulous in regard to its merits, having tried various medicines sold for the same purpose, (different Sarsaparillas,) without deriving any benefit. I had almost given up all hope of obtaining relief, when I purchased some of your Cordial. I had no faith whatever of its benefiting me—but it has. I feel stronger, have had no emissions since, although it is not three weeks. I am satisfied that the half a dozen bottles I took will cure me."

Another says: "I had consulted several distinguished physicians. Some said I could not be cured; others prescribed this thing and that; but I found no relief until I procured some of your Cordial. I must say it completely cured me."

Another says: "I was surprised at the effect your Cordial had. With had I not beared at the effect your Cordial.

oured me."

Another says: "I was surprised at the effect your Cordial had. Why had I not heard of it before? It would have saved me so much expense, besides years of mental and bodily suffering."

AMERICAN TELEGRAPH Acceptance by Gen. Scott and Mr. Graham of the Whig Nominations.

LETTER TO GENERAL SCOTT.

BALTIMORE, June 22, 1852. Sin: I am instructed by the Whig Nation onvention to inform you of your unanim omination as the Whig candidate for the office of President of the United States.

I enclose a copy of resolutions passed by the convention, expressing their opinions upon some of the most prominent questions of national policy; and, with sincere wishes that you may be elected, and for the permanent settlement of the principles of the Whig party,

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, you bedient servant, J. G. CHAPMAN, of Maryland,

President of the Whig National Convents To Maj. Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT.

THE OFFICIAL PLATFORM OF THE WHIG NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The Whigs of the United States, in Convention ssembled, firmly adhering to the great conserva-ive republican principles by which they are controlled and governed, and now, as ever, relying upon the intelligence of the American people, with abiding confidence in their capacity for selfowing as the political sentiments and determinafor the establishment and maintenance of which their national organization as a party is

1. The government of the United States is of limited character, and it is confined to the exercise of powers expressly granted by the consti-tution, and such as may be necessary and proper for carrying the granted powers into full execution; and that all powers not thus granted or necessarily implied are expressly reserved to the States, respectively, and to the people.

2. The State governments should be held secure in their reserved rights, and the general governments. ernment sustained in its constitutional powers, and the Union should be revered and watched over as "the palladium of our liberties."

3. That, while struggling freedom everywhere enlists the warmest sympathy of the Whig party, we still adhere to the doctrines of the Father of his Country, as announced in his Farewell Adherence of the struggling free form all party. lress, of keeping ourselves free from all entangling alliances with foreign countries, and of never quitting our own to stand upon foreign That our mission as a republic is not t propagate our opinions, or impose on other counbut to teach by example, and show, by our suc-cess, moderation, and justice, the blessings of self-government and the advantages of free in-

4. That where the people make and control the government, they should obey its constitution, laws, and treaties, as they would retain their selfrespect and the respect which they claim and will enforce from foreign powers.

5. Government should be conducted upon principles of the strictest economy, and revenue sufficient for the expenses thereof, in time of peace ought to be mainly derived from a duty on im orts, and not from direct taxes; and in levying such duties, sound policy requires a just discrimi-nation, and protection from fraud by specific dues when practicable, whereby suitable encourgement may be assured to American industry qually to all classes and to all portions of th ountry.

6. The constitution vests in Congress the powe

o open and repair harbors, and remove obstruc ions from navigable rivers; and it is expedient that Congress should exercise that power, whenver such improvements are necessary for the commo ommerce with foreign nations or among the States; such improvements being, in every in-toof the most prominent questions of national polistance, national and general in their character, ey; and, with sincere wishes that you may be 7. The federal and State governments are parts elected, and for the permanent settlement of the of one system, alike necessary for the common sprinciples of the Whig party, I have the honor that the property pages and sequently and ought to be very respectfully your obelient servent.

osperity neace and security and ought to b regarded alike with a cordial, habitual, and mmovable attachment. Respect for the author i ity of each, and acquiescence in the constitu nal measures of each, are duties required by he plainest considerations of national, of State and of individual welfare.

8. The series of acts of the 31st Congress con the act for the recovery of fugitives from labo ncluded) are received and acquiesced in by the Whigs of the United States as a final settlement in principle and substance, of the subjects which they relate; and, so far as these acts ar oncerned, we will maintain them, and insis their strict enforcement, until time and ex rience shall demonstrate the necessity of furher legislation, to guard against the evasion of he laws on the one hand, and the abuse of the owers on the other-not impairing their presen fficiency to carry out the requirements of th enstitution; and we deprecate all further agita on of the questions thus settled, as dangerou our peace, and will discountenance all efforts continue or renew such agitation, whenever wherever, or however made; and we will maain this settlement as essential to the nationality of the Whig party and the integrity of the Union

LETTER OF GENERAL SCOTT IN REPLY WASHINGTON, JUNE 24, 1852.

SIR: I have had the honor to recieve fro our hands the official notice of my "unanim nomination as the Whig candidate for the offi of President of the United States. togeth with "a copy of the resolutions pas ad by th onvention, expressing their opinions upon sor the most prominent questions of nation

This great distinction, conferred by a numerous elligent, and patriotic body, repres at ag mil is of my countrymen, sinks deep into my art : and, remembering the very eminent name ich were before the Convention in amicable apetition with my own, I am made to feel opessively the weight of responsibility belonging my new position. Not having written a word to procure this disonferred, in addressing a letter to one of your embers to signify what would be, at the proper time, the substance of my reply to the Convention; and I now have the honor to repeat, in a more formal manner, as the occasion justly demands, that I accept the nomination, with the resolutions innexed. The political principles and measures laid down in those resolutions are so broad that but little is left for me to add. I therefore barely suggest, in this place, that should I, by the partiality of my countrymen, be elevated to the Chief Magistracy of the Union, I shall be ready, in my connexion with Congress, to recommend or to approve of measures in regard to the management of the public domain, so as to secure an early settlement of the same favorable to actual settlers, but consistent, nevertheless, with a due regard to the sistent, nevertheless, with a due regard to the equal rights of the whole American people in that vast national inheritance; and also to recommend or approve a single alteration in our naturalization laws, suggested by my military experience, viz: giving to all foreigners the right of citizenship who shall faithfully serve, in time of war, one year on board of our public ships, or war, and forces, regular or volunteer on their

of war, one year on board of our public ships, or in our land forces, regular or volunteer, on their receiving an honorable discharge from the service. In regard to the general policy of the admin-istration, if elected, I should, of course, look among those who may approve that policy for the agents to carry it into execution; and I should seek to cultivate harmony and fraternal sentiments throughout the Whig party, without overnment and their continued devotion to the attempting to reduce its members, by proscriptonstitution and the Union, do proclaim the following as the political sentiments and determinated should, at the same time, be rigorous in regard to qualifications for office—retaining and ap-pointing no one either deficient in capacity or ntegrity, or in devotion to liberty, to the constitution, and the Union.

Convinced that harmony and good-will between the different quarters of our broad country are essential to the present and future interests of the republic, and with a devotion to those interests that can know no South and no North, I should neither countenance nor tolerate any sedition, disorder, faction, or resistance to the law or the Union, on any pretext, in any part of the land; and I should carry into the civil adainstration this one principle of military conluct-obedience to the legislative and judicial lepartments of government, each in its constitutional sphere: saving only, in respect to the legislature, the possible resort to the veto power, always to be most cautiously exercised and under

he strictest restraints and necessities. Finally, for my adherence to the principles of the Whig party, as expressed in the resolutions of the Convention and herein suggested, with a sin-cere and carnest purpose to advance the greatness and happiness of the republic, and thus to cherish and encourage the cause of constitutional liberty throughout the world-avoiding every act and thought that might involve our country in an unjust or unnecessary war, or impair the faith of treaties, and discountenancing all politi-cal agitation injurious to the interests of society and dangerous to the Union-I can offer no other pledge or guaranty than the known incidents of long public life, now undergoing the severest xamination. Feeling myself highly fortunate in my asso-ciate on the ticket, and with a lively sense of my obligations to the Convention and to your ersonal courtesies. I have the honor to remain. sir, with great esteem, your most obedient ser be, very respectfully, your obedient servant. J. G. CHAPMAN President of the Whig National Convention. WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, of North Carolina.

MR. GRAHAM'S REPLY WASHINGTON, June 24, 1852.

Sin: I am gratified to acknowledge the receipt nonly known as the Compromise or Adjustment of the communication which you did me the mor to deliver in person on yesterday, announng my unanimous nomination as the Whig canhidate for the office of Vice President of the United States by the National Convention which recently assembled in Baltimore, accompanied by copy of the resolutions of the Convention upon uestions of national principle and policy. I cordially approve the declations made by hese resolutions on matters of the most recent practical interest. They do but portray the conduct of an administration of the government of which, for near two years, I have been a memer. On all other matters they but reiterate the ectrines and recommendations held by its Chief important public communications. Should the people of the United States give correspond to the nominations of your Conention, so far as I shall be invested with author-ty, a faithful adherence to these doctrines may expected. I therefore accept the distinction, so honorably tendered, with a grateful heart, but with un-affected diffidence. It is a satisfaction, however, know that the place to which I have been nomnated is but secondary, and that for the first flice the Convention have proposed a citizen of ed patriotism and virtue, long and familiarly quainted with public affairs and public men : ife and sagacious counsellor, who has well fullled every trust heretofore committed to his ands, and who has illustrated our history by minent public services. With my thanks for the courtesy with which ou have honored me in the execution of your office, and with the highest personal respect, I am your obedient servant.

WILL. A. GRAHAM. The Hon. J. G. CHAPMAN.
